

MOM'S NEWSLETTER

JULY 2009 "INDEPENDENCE FROM THE DULL AND TRUTHFUL" VOL. 22, NO. 6

Little Billy Miller Has Girlfriend! Really!

Well, it had to happen eventually and it finally did when our own Little Billy Miller presented his first formal, living girlfriend, Amy Abrahamson-Kutyurkokov, at a recent social cotillion at the Faribault Elks Club. In addition to the presentation of the couple, they have also been hitting the town; inseparable and cute as a forty-five year old button. "My Billy," said Amy, "Is man of my dreams and I am the luckiest Женщина, I mean gal, in all of the Rice County."

They met at the Immigration and Naturalization Service office and it was love at first sight. "It was strange, I went because I got a call to come in for a weigh-in and I bumped into Amy at the door. In fact, I talked to the front desk; they said it must have been a wrong number. I didn't know they did weigh-ins at the INS."

The MNL Social columnist editor interviewed Amy about the romance. When asked what she liked about Billy, Amy said, "His smile, manly little beard, his green card...I mean green eyes and his влюбленносизни ... I mean love of life."

Mid-Summer 2009 Check-ins

"As a recent university graduate, I have been home for 7 weeks and I know what goes through a prisoner's head planning a daring escape. Please send me a cake with a hand shovel baked into it."

"I am announcing that I am done 'doing' Thanksgiving. It added exhaustion and stress from defending the salmonella outbreaks from 2004, 2007 and 2008; and they were just bad luck!"

"I have invented the Bob1 Thinking Hat™. It allows me to think of mysterious and unknown things in nature including Jim Batchelder's 1973 date with Wendy Mortensen. A real poser."

"Evidentially, I have become a combination short-order cook, chauffeur, roadie and unwitting accomplice in a stolen good scam. Kids steal the darndest things."

How Are We Getting Into Shape For Swimsuit Season?

